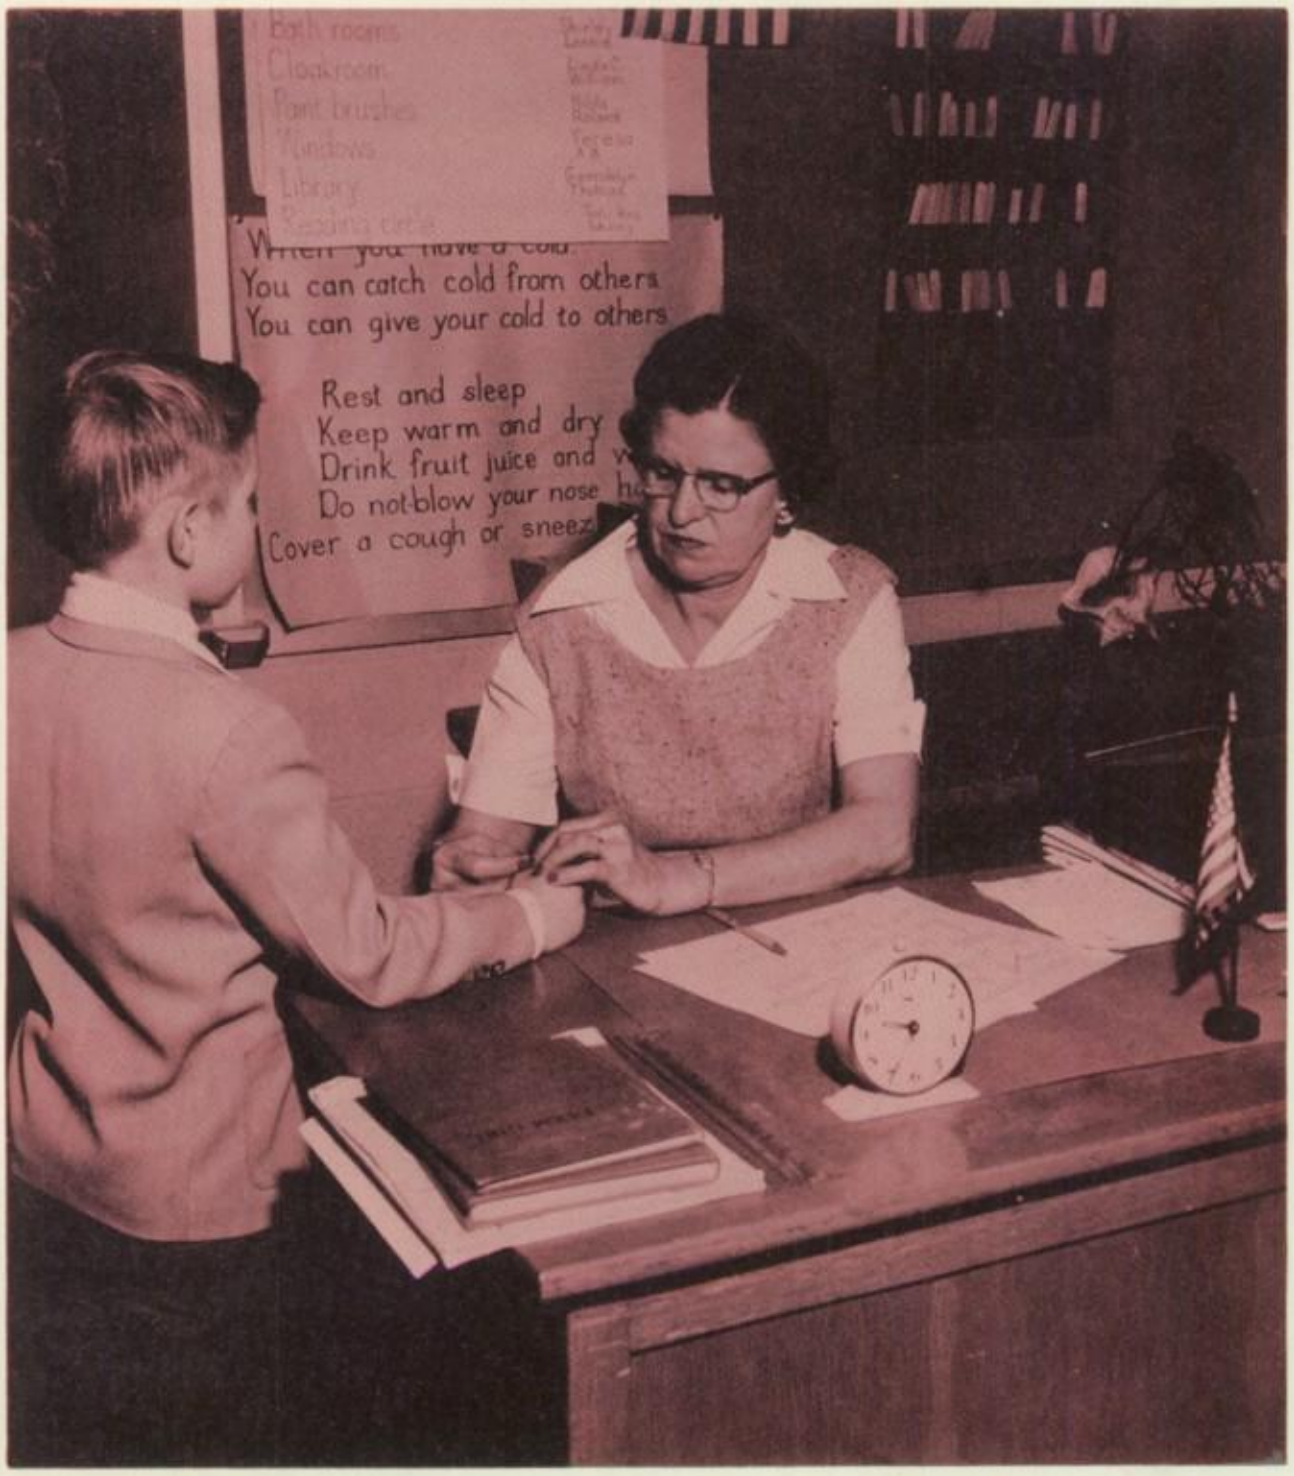
DEDICATION



You can catch cold from others
You can give your cold to others
Rest and sleep
Keep warm and dry
Drink fruit juice and
Do not blow your nose
Cover a cough or sneez

We, the Senior Class of 1961, wish to dedicate our annual THE TROJAN to a most deserving teacher. Early in our school years she helped us to lay a foundation upon which we could build our entire lives. Through her unceasing devotion to our school, she has been a source of inspiration not only to our class but, to all those with whom she has come in contact. For these reasons and many more we wish to dedicate THE TROJAN to MRS. DAISY H. HOLT.

ADMINISTRATION

OUR PRINCIPAL

THURMAN A. HORNEY

Mr. Horney, a man of unceasing energy and deep understanding, became principal of McLeansville School in 1958. Under his guidance and leadership, the school has experienced steady growth. It is the desire of Mr. Horney and the entire faculty that McLeansville School give to students a foundation that will enable them to develop a sound philosophy by which to live, a foundation that will insure for them a happy and successful future.

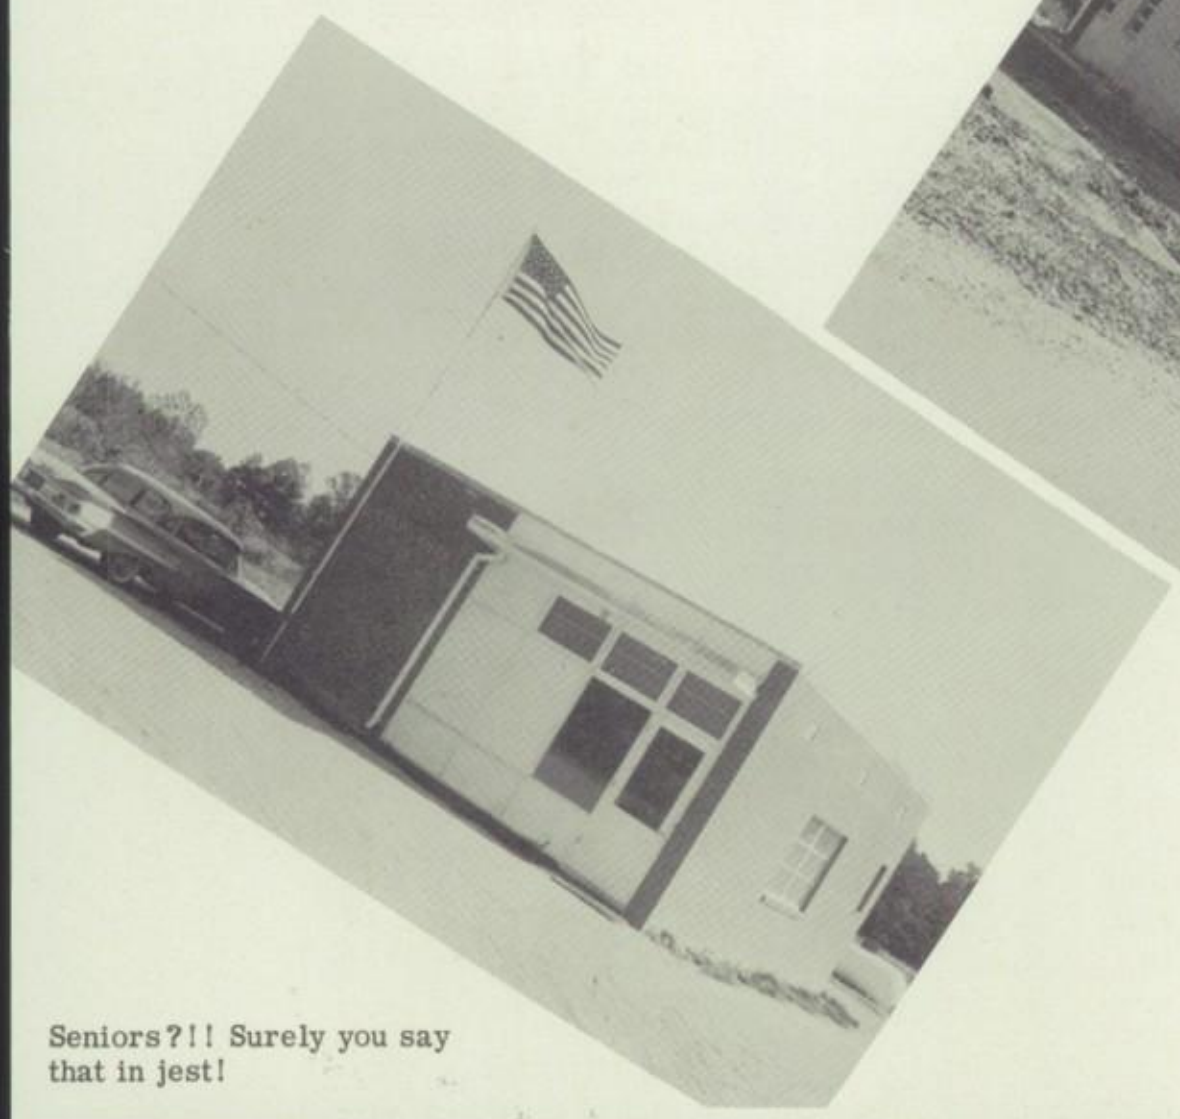
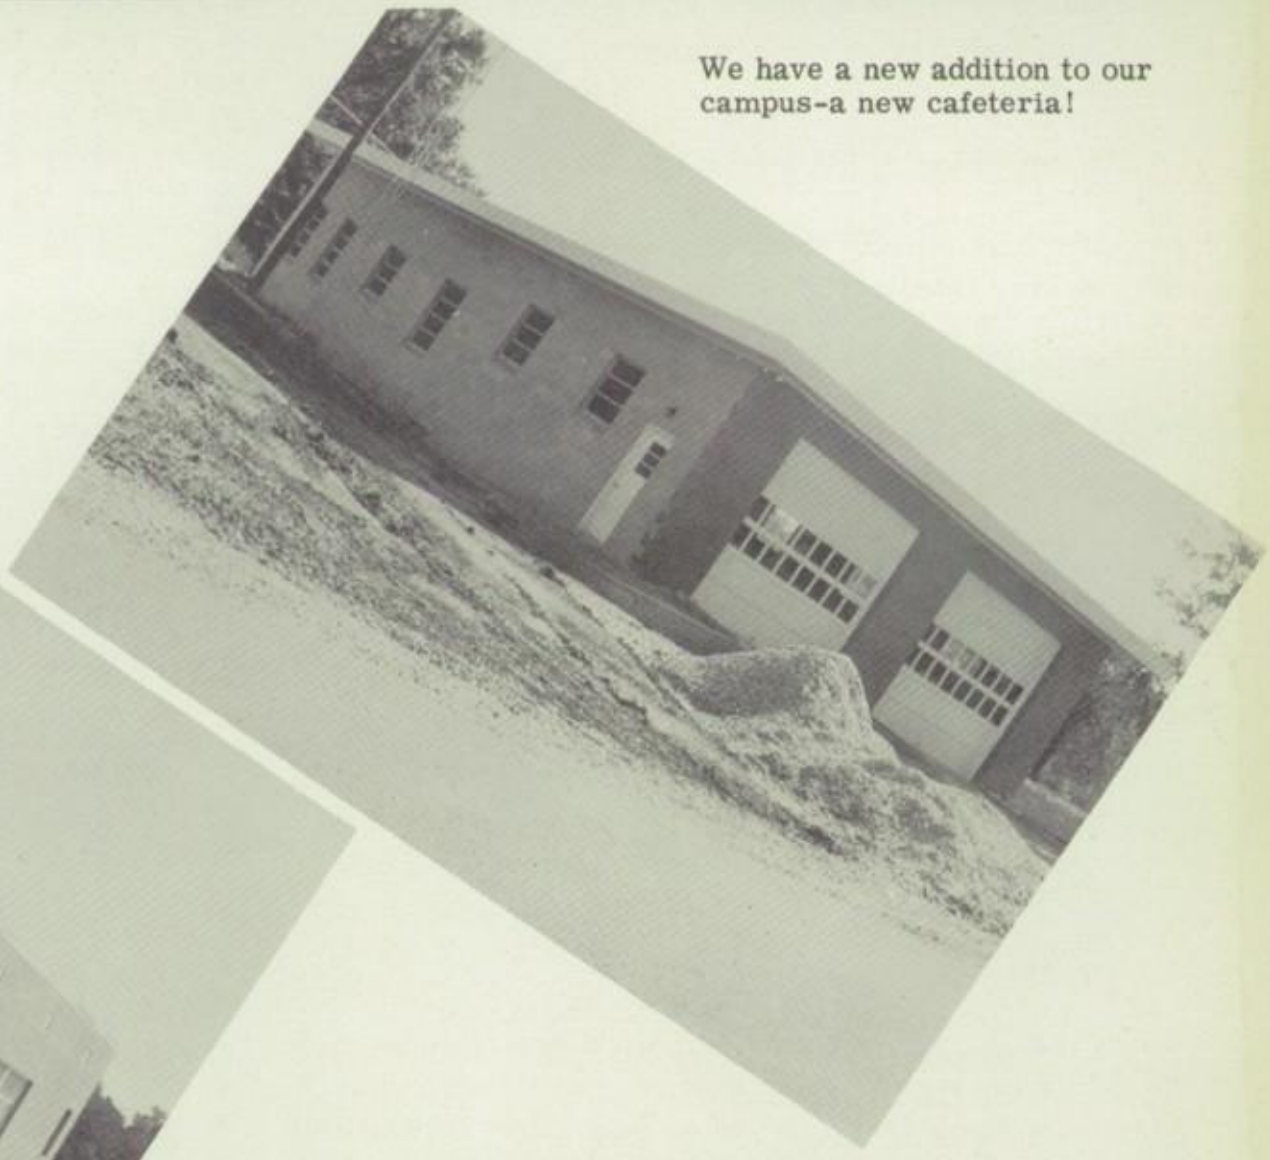
Guess which school we attend!



Quite an improvement over our old Post Office!



We have a new addition to our campus-a new cafeteria!

McLeansville is growing by leaps and bounds-a new fire station!

Who is the topic of discussion now?

Seniors?!! Surely you say that in jest!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1961, having come to the end of twelve happy years at McLeansville High School, do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

To our Faculty we leave a few more gray hairs with our thanks and our highest regards for their tireless efforts in directing our progress.

To our beloved school we leave our gay times and cherished memories.

We leave our hopes that in the very near future our faculty and underclassmen will have the privilege of enjoying a larger and better equipped school.

We, Emily Huckabee and Kenneth Butler, do bequeath our superlative of "Best All Around" to Rita Cobb and Wayne Andrews.

We, Frances Kennedy and Ronnie Hawks, do bequeath our superlative of "Best Dressed" to Betty Kennedy and Joe Mitchell.

We, Jean Starr and Johnny Whitesell, do bequeath our superlative of "Best Personality" to Betty Kennedy and Jerry Kivett.

We, Reita Anderson and David Crabtree, do bequeath our superlative of "Biggest Flirts" to Brenda Ring and Joe Mitchell.

We, Bettye McBride and Sammy Anderson, do bequeath our superlative of "Cutest" to Peggy Welborne and Jerry Smith.

We, Gail Lowdermilk and Paul Cordial, do bequeath our superlative of "Friendliest" to Brenda Moore and Michael Bowman.

We, Jean McCollum and Dewey Winfree, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Ambitious" to Peggy Brown and Howard Dawson.

We, Helen Paisley and Ed Hill, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Athletic" to Peggy Brown and Jerry Kivett.

I, Sylvia Gerringer, do bequeath my superlative of "Most Attractive" to Betty Kennedy.

I, J.C. Tuttle, do bequeath my superlative of "Best Looking" to Wayne Andrews.

We, Helen Edmonds and Frank Waite, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Congenial" to Patsy Stewart and Joe Mitchell.

We, Rebecca Shaw and Kenneth Murrell, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Courteous" to Geneva Porter and Wayne Andrews.

We, Marian Register and Woody Fryar, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Dependable" to Peggy Brown and Jerry Kivett.

We, Barbara Gann and Ray Braswell, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Intellectual" to Brenda Funderburk and Jerry Smith.

We, Judy Gerringer and John Terry, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Likely to Succeed" to Rita Cobb and Wayne Andrews.

We, Sylvia Greeson and Voight Michael, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Original" to Jane Green and Richard Dix.

We, Nancy Sears and Carl Pegram, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Talented" to Rita Cobb and Jerry Smith.

We, Anne Moore and James Turner, do bequeath our superlative of "Most Unpredictable" to Bobbie Sue Collins, Stanley Hodgin and Gerald Maynard.

We, Evelyn Lowe and James Vernon, do bequeath our superlative of "Quiestest" to Ruby Loftis and Roy Scearce.

There will always be in our minds happy memories of dear McLeansville with its understanding faculty and loyal friends.

With grateful hearts we leave you now, ever remembering your love and kindness for us.

FANTASY

Having been assigned to do a feature story on two of my old classmates, Ed Hill, and Ronnie Hawks, who are the star performers in the nation's top band, I headed for good ol' McLeansville.

Upon arriving, I went to see Mrs. Clapp, our senior advisor. She was busy working on a book filled with many school life experiences.

After talking with Mrs. Clapp, I visited Jean McCollum. Jean, Bettye McBride, and Reita Anderson are all teaching in the elementary grades of a new Guilford County School.

We decided that the best way to see everyone was to have one "whale of a party." We quickly made plans for the following weekend, inviting all of our former classmates.

My first encounter at the party was with Woody Fryar. I was delighted to hear that Woody is now a very successful civil engineer.

Barbara Gann and Anne Moore, who work for Burlington Industries, are both doing fine.

I was happy to learn that Paul Cordial, Johnny Whitesell, and James Turner are running a successful garage and auto mechanics shop. James is a specialist in the field of diesel mechanics.

After graduating from W.C., Emily Huckabee and Nancy Sears bought Guilford Art Galleries and are two of North Carolina's finest interior decorators. Jean Starr is doing a fine job as a homemaker and is thinking of joining Nancy and Emily in the interior decorating business.

John Terry, one of the top chemists for a leading industry of the United States, has become world famous.

Helen Edmonds and Sylvia Greeson are enjoying their secretarial work to the fullest extent.

I was happy to hear that Raymond Braswell and Dewey Winfree are successful radio and television technicians.

Both Frances Kennedy and Evelyn Lowe have had their dreams come true and are engaged in nursing. Another classmate, Judy Gerringer, has attained great heights in the nursing world. She is one of the nation's top surgical nurses.

Kenneth Butler and Sammy Anderson enjoy their work as electrical engineers.

Sylvia Gerringer, combining a business career with homemaking, is extremely happy working as a typist for a large executive firm.

I was delighted to learn that Voight Michael is a promising young lawyer in Greensboro. Who is his secretary? None other than our own Rebecca Shaw.

James Vernon has received recognition as one of McLeansville's finest farmers.

It was interesting to find that Gail Lowdermilk is working as a secretary for her husband who is a doctor.

My next encounter at the party was with Marian Register who is a well-loved math teacher at one of the large consolidated schools in Guilford County.

We were sorry that three of our classmates were unable to attend the party. They were: Kenneth Murrell who is an enterprising civil engineer, David Crabtree who is very happy with his Naval career and J.C. Tuttle who is really going places in the professional baseball world. He is a starting pitcher for the New York Yankees.

After completing a mechanical course offered by General Motors, Carl Pegram began work as the head mechanic and body repair man for a leading automotive industry.

The party having ended and my mission being completed, I, Helen Paisley, headed back to my job in the field of journalism.

HIGH SCHOOL MEMORIES

Whoooh, wait, take it easy. YOU almost overlooked our HIGH SCHOOL MEMORIES. And after all, don't you think this would be one of the most interesting pages in the annual? Wouldn't you like to know what happened to us during our days of high school life?

At last, after eight years of being in elementary school, we were finally freshmen in high school. Our faculty was composed of Mr. Zolly L. Bowden, principal, Miss Marie Essa, Mrs. Edna R. Clapp, Mrs. Verna Dare Avery, Mr. Alex M. Larson, Mr. Bobby Andrews, Mr. R.F. Hicks, and Mr. E. A. Adams. This year we were happy to have John Terry rejoin us, and also two new students, Bettye McBride and James Turner. After a year of hard work and fun, we became sophomores. Mr. Thurman A. Horney, principal, and Mrs. Evelyn Raper joined the high school faculty. The faculty guided us through a profitable and successful year preparing us for our junior year.

Our junior year was highlighted by the ordering of our class rings, the junior play "While Wifey's Away" directed by Mr. Bobby T. Andrews, and the Junior Senior Banquet held at the Plantation Supper Club. We welcomed to our faculty this year Mrs. Sylvia P. Bristow, Miss Jean Brower, and Mr. Jim Harris.

Our twelfth and last rung of the ladder of school life gave to us the title of SENIORS. We welcomed Gail Lowdermilk and Ronnie Hawks to our class, making a total of thirty-six seniors. Starting the year off on the right foot, we immediately began making plans for our annual, THE TROJAN, under the direction of Miss Marie Essa. Mrs. Clapp, our adviser, helped us in selecting and directing our senior play, "Grandad Steps Out," as well as in ordering our caps and gowns, invitations, and diplomas. Being the honored guests for the Junior-Senior Banquet was indeed a pleasure. Mrs. Mary Craven and Mr. Carl Kennedy were new members of our faculty.

With grateful appreciation and humble gratitude to all those who have helped us in attaining our goal, graduation from high school, we leave our dear alma mater to go our separate ways.

"So, then, to every man his chance—
To every man, regardless of his birth,
His shining, golden opportunity—
To every man the right to live,
To work, to be himself
